

Ms. Parul is working as Assistant Professor of Education in Department of Elementary Education. She is pursuing her PhD in the area of Teacher Professionalism from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai. She teaches foundation courses - Curriculum Studies and School Planning & Management, also involved in supervision of internship and practicums like undergraduate research projects, School Contact programme. She has been a part of different Curriculum development Committees of Teacher Education programmes - B.Ed (Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai) and B El Ed.

Her research experience includes-

1. Assisting the work of the Committee to Suggest Operational Guidelines for the Strengthening and revitalization of Sub- district Level Resource Centres (Block and Cluster Resource Centres appointed by the Department of School Education and Literacy, Ministry of Human Resources Development. Published an article titled - Getting into the shoes of BRPs and CRPs: A reflection on the nature of work of resource person at block and cluster levels in Voices of Teachers and Teacher Educator, June 2013
2. Worked as Researcher Base line Survey of the School Scenario in 3 States which is being conducted by the Tata Institute of Social sciences, Mumbai with funding from the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India

Professional Membership- She is also a life time member of Comparative Education Society of India.