

DrPreeti Pant completed her M.Phil. and Ph.D. from Delhi University. She has been a BPR&D, Government of India Fellow. Her fields of interest are clinical, social and positive psychology. She has spent a large phase of research pertaining to the problem of drug addiction. Her innovative papers in clinical, social and positive research have been published in renowned journals. Presently she is also pursuing her post -doctoral research on role of spirituality in higher education for which she is getting ICSSR grant.